ORDER

On June 23, 2007, this Court issued an Order remanding jurisdiction of this case to the Hon. Les Meade, Judge of the Tippecanoe Superior Court No. 2. We noted therein that Judge Meade's recusal order did not support the appointment of a special judge.

On July 5, 2007, Adrian and Janell Rangel tendered a pleading entitled "Motion for Correction of Errors" with the Clerk of this Court. In this motion, the Rangels set forth their reasons why there should be a new judge in this case.

A motion to correct error is the procedural mechanism for challenging a final judgment or an appealable final order of a trial court. It is not applicable to challenge an order of this Court. Under Ind. Trial Rule 76, requests for a change of judge are made to the trial court, not this Court. We find that the Rangels have not properly invoked the jurisdiction of this Court and have requested relief that should be directed to the trial court. We therefore decline to act upon their "Motion for Correction of Errors."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the jurisdiction of this Court having not been properly invoked, the Court declines to act upon the "Motion for Correction of Errors" tendered July 5, 2007.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to forward notice of this Order to the Hon. Les A. Meade, Tippecanoe Superior Court, 301 Main Street, Lafayette, IN 47901-1354, and to the Clerk of the Tippecanoe Superior Court.

The Clerk of the Tippecanoe Superior Court is directed to forward notice of this Order to all parties of record in the case below.

DONE at Indianapolis, Indiana, this 11th day of July, 2007.

Acting Chief Justice of Indiana
